Lesser Loves

Intro/Outro

Verse

1. I was a pris-'ner, you held the key,
2. I was an en-emy, you made me a guest,
3. I was an or-phan, you called me child,

the door was o-pened, you wel-comed me;
You spread the ta-ble in the wil-der-ness;
I was a stran-ger I was lost and de-filed.

Oh I was guil-ty of ev-'ry crime, but you
Be-side the wa-ters, you filled my cup, ä O Re-demp-tion found me from up a-bove, ä O

took my place and you how I have set-tled for how I have set-tled for

Chorus

did my time. / les - ser loves. / les - ser loves. How can I thank you, thank you Lord, my broken heart you have re - stored; How can I thank you, thank you Lord, you give me grace I can - not af - ford.
